Nellie is one slippery Noodle, breaking 600-metre track record

The Robert Britton-trained Nellie Noodles broke the 600-metre track record at The Meadows last Wednesday afternoon in only her fifth race start.

The daughter of Flying Penske and Classy Creek ran a sensational 34.07 after jumping off the red box, carving .02 off the track record jointly held by three female chasers including Oh Behave (December 28, 2002), Puaa To Burn (December 31, 2005) and Clair Maude (March 22, 2008). Her winning margin was a whopping 17 and a half lengths.

It was just the black chaser's second career victory, also scoring at Geelong over 600 metres in a flying 34.29.

Nellie Noodles – who turns two this week – is not only a sister to dual Group 1 finalist Symmetry, but she is also a three quarter sister to the likes of former track superstars Texas Gold, Quidame and Lucy's Light, also owned by Helen Ivers.

Dining packages are available at The Meadows every Saturday night. For more information, call 9355 5222 or go to www.themeadows.org.au
